

Permit Application History
for the Wilson-SilverBell Mine
Union Carbide ACT/037/027

June 23, 1977:

The Division received the mining and reclamation plan with no acreage delineation proposed for the 15 year life of mine.

April 12, 1978:

An inspection of the minesite was performed by the Division. A memo to the file documenting a revegetation amendment was made.

November 17, 1978:

Union Carbide committed to the responsibility for reclaiming the evaporation ponds.

November 21, 1978:

An initial surety estimate form and review document was put together at the Division to cover a 10 acre disturbance. Executive Summary completed.

December 14, 1978:

The company sent a completed MR-8 commitment form. A memo to the Board of Oil, Gas and Mining requested their concurrence for tentative approval.

December 21, 1978:

The Board and Division issued tentative approval for the operations. Notification was given the company on December 28, 1978.

December 29, 1978:

Publication of the official 30 day announcement was made.

February 5, 1979:

The Division supplied copies of the surety form to Union Carbide.

February 27, 1979:

Union Carbide returned the signed contract form to the Division.

May 2, 1979:

Final approval of the operation was given.

December 15, 1980:

The Division received the 1979 Annual Operation Report.

January 2, 1981:

The Division requested the 1980 Annual Report.

Page Two

March 4, 1981:

The 1980 Annual Report was received.

February 4, 1982:

The Division received the 1981 Annual Report. The company was notified of a possible inspection.

March 30, 1983:

A 1982 Annual Report was received. In addition, current estimates of site disturbance include 22 acres. A revised surety and request for a 35 acre disturbance was made.

April 25, 1983:

This application history was compiled.